ADDENDUM to Item 7. Foreign Political Party: Committed to achieving a strong, democratic, unified and forward-looking Georgia using a diversity of political forces united in the common aim of securing a freer, more pluralistic society and, through a truly representative Parliament that has come to power as a result of the free expression of the will of the people of Georgia, promoting the goals of the majority of the nation, specifically aiming to:

1. End authoritarian rule and political messianism in Georgia; by developing durable, liberal, democratic institutions of government, and overcome persistent polarization in society and strengthen the national concord;
2. Establish a working system of checks and balances, genuine self-governance and a multi-party political system, through constitutional reform actively involving the People;
3. Ensure the state's long-term security and strengthen its regional position by deepening integration into the EU and NATO, and participate more actively in regional economic development and peace-making efforts;
4. Initiate a real and irreversible process towards unifying the state by developing dialogue with the Abkhaz and the Ossetian peoples, gaining tangible results in negotiations with Russia towards the restoration of occupied territories, all with the engagement of the international community;
5. Establish new traditions of participatory democracy through free and fair multiparty elections, a new level of accountability of the government to the people and with the precedent of a peaceful transfer of power through the electoral process, civility in politics by encouraging the opposition to take a meaningful part in the governance of the state, and protecting the independence of the media and genuine and organic civil society institutions;
6. Ensure the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens, due process in administering criminal and civil cases, and an end to political persecution by establishing the rule of law, independence of the judiciary from the executive, and relieving law enforcement agencies from political pressure;
7. Establish civil and professional control over governmental responsibilities, protected from partisanship and patronage, so that the state will no longer depend on a single party in order to function, but rather on continually improving standards of non-partisan public service;
8. Advance a realistic and sustainable plan to combat unemployment and poverty through incentives to empower citizens and small and medium-sized businesses, and rebuild a functioning agricultural sector within the country's economy while strengthening both private property and labor rights;
9. Introduce the accessible and high-quality systems of education and health care by implementing well-conceptualized and targeted reforms;
10. Provide incapacitated citizens with worthy living conditions through a secure social environment and developing the social solidarity system;
11. Promote the formation of diverse unity of Georgia's citizens – the civil society, ensure that all ethnicities and creeds are respected and fully integrated into Georgia's social, economic and political life, in accordance with our country's long-standing traditions of tolerance; and
12. Protect the nation's cultural heritage and promote its educational and social-economic modernization and thus overcome, on one hand – a blind imitation, and on the other hand – a pseudo-patriotic parochialism.
